Proclamation

CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Whereas, San Francisco recognizes the mission of California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation is to enhance public safety through safe and secure incarceration of offenders, effective parole supervision, and rehabilitative strategies to reintegrate offender into communities; and

Whereas, the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation endeavors to protect the public from crime and victimization; and

Whereas, the California Department of Correction Rehabilitation's Division of Adult Parole Operation (DAPO) protects our community by empowering parole agents to be an active part of each community's safety plans; by providing resources and services to offer the opportunity for change; and

Whereas, DAPO recently launched the "Five-Year Roadmap to Our Future" program to reduce recidivism through effective offender supervision strategies, and promoting a paradigm shift where staff embrace emerging correctional practices that can facilitate long-term behavior change within the offender population; and

Whereas, San Francisco honors Kenneth Wong for your distinguished service leading to your position as Parole Agent III, Unit Supervisor and Building Manager of the main San Francisco office, to your exceptional commitment to crime prevention and community service, such as the Sunset Graffiti Clean-Up program, for your professional embodiment of the CDCR's values of accountability, collaboration, integrity, leadership, respect, service and trust

S

Therefore be it Resolved that I, Ross Mirkarimi, Supervisor in the City and County of San Francisco, recognizes your dedication and commitment to providing services to the people of San Francisco, the Board of Supervisors extends its heartfelt appreciation and highest commendation.
